CAMPAIGN DESCRIPTION Max 5000 Characters - For each topic there must be a corresponding sample message below. - Provide a Detailed use case/description of the way that your [Brand Name] will utilize the text messaging service on the campaign registry. - Example Types: Transactional Notifications, Account Alerts, Appointment Reminders, Customer Support or Helpdesk Notifications, Webinars or Event Reminders, Payment and Billing Notifications, Surveys and Feedback Requests, and/or Loyalty Program Updates.
CALL-TO-ACTION/MESSAGE FLOW - The purpose of a Call-to-Action (CTA) is to ensure that the consumer consents to receiving text messages and fully understands the nature of the program. The CTA language should clearly invite or encourage the consumer to opt into a messaging program and must be clearly displayed. - Example Text: (AUDIENCE) may opt-in to receiving SMS messages via three possible means: 1. (AUDIENCE) opt in via website form (yourdomain.com/contact_us) by checking a box to agree to our SMS terms. Upon subscribing, Parents receive a confirmation message with details on how to manage their subscription. This is part of the START message above.

2. Verbal consent may be obtained in the office or via phone, and we attach the transcript and recording of the SMS consent that is read off to the (AUDIENCE).

3. The third form of SMS consent is a paper intake form that the (AUDIENCE) agrees to when signing our document which we attached a copy of that form.

- (AUDIENCE) may receive up to (NUMBER) messages in a day if the (AUDIENCE) is engaged in a transaction with the school. Otherwise, the (AUDIENCE) would not receive regular messages daily.
- (AUDIENCE) may request help at any time by texting HELP. The help message has been included in the campaign HELP message.
- (AUDIENCE) may request to opt-out of receiving messages from the campaign at any time by texting STOP. The opt-out message has been included in the campaign OPT-OUT message.
- We have included every message the (AUDIENCE) may receive in their (AUDIENCE) journey for this use case in sample messages #1 through #(X)
- We always comply with TCPA rules and regulations as they may apply.

The SMS consent workflow on this form must match the SMS consent on the company website privacy policy and SMS terms page.
