Additionally, the Contractor will have access to and maintain, develop and initiate customer relationships and goodwill that are of value to the Company and which it has a legitimate interest in protecting.

At all times during and after the term of Contractor's engagement with Company, Contractor shall not, except with Company's prior written consent, or except in the proper course of his performance of services for the Company, directly or indirectly, disclose, communicate, or divulge to any individual or entity, or use for his own benefit or the benefit of any other individual or entity, any confidential or proprietary knowledge or information concerning the conduct or details of Company's business, including without limitation, names of customers and prospects, details of contracts, technical know-how, methods of operation, marketing methods, other trade secrets, pricing, or other policies, prospects, and financial information. The contractor acknowledges that these provisions apply even to information that is developed or conceived by him alone or with others at the Company's direction, as well as to confidential and/or proprietary information received from any customer or other person or entity who does business with the Company; however, the Contractor will retain the ownership of his original curriculum, proprietary resources, and Educational content created prior to the contract with the Company.

Upon termination of Contractor's engagement with Company for any reason, Contractor shall immediately return to Company all correspondence, files, customer and prospect lists, notes, technical data, and other materials which contain any such confidential or proprietary knowledge or information, and Contractor shall not retain any copies of such materials. A violation of this paragraph shall be considered a material breach of this Agreement.

10. Work Product. The contractor retains no right to use the Work Product and agrees not to challenge the validity of the Client's ownership of the Work Product.

11. Choice of Law and Forum. This Agreement and the performance of services hereunder will be governed by the laws of the State of California. Any lawsuit filed by either Contractor or Company shall be filed in the Superior Court for the State of California in Los Angeles. The contractor and Company herein each consent to the personal jurisdiction and venue of said court over them and agree not to contest jurisdiction or the application of California law.

12. Attorneys' Fees. The Contractor agrees to indemnify the Company for its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in enforcing the terms of this Agreement should the Contractor violate any of its terms.

13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the complete agreement of the Parties and will supersede any and all other agreements, understandings, and representations, whether oral or written, by and between the Parties hereto.

14. Relationship of the Parties. The Contractor is an independent contractor, not a Company employee. Nothing herein requires the Company to offer services and work opportunities to the Contractor, and nothing herein requires the Contractor to accept work opportunities. Nothing herein requires the Contractor to work exclusively for the Company. The contractor may not hire any employees or engage any Contractor to assist in the performance of his duties hereunder, without the prior written consent of an Owner of the Company. The contractor shall fully indemnify and hold Company completely harmless for any and all expenses, costs, liabilities, and losses, including attorneys' fees, as a result of the Contractor's violation of any provision of this paragraph.

15. Severability: If any provision of this Agreement is construed to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, then the remaining provisions hereof shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforceable without regard thereto.

16. Binding Authority: The Company and its representative signing this Agreement agree and confirm that the undersigned individual has the right, power, and authority to sign this Agreement on behalf of the Company and to legally bind the Company to this Agreement with his signature.

17. Counterparts: This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original copy of this Agreement, and all of which, when taken together, will be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement. The exchange of copies of this Agreement and of signature pages by facsimile or electronic transmission shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Agreement as to the Parties and may be used in lieu of the original Agreement for all purposes.
