Medicaid Self-Directed Care Training

When you choose the option to self-direct your care and hire a Direct Support Worker (DSW), you become the Employer and assume the responsibility to select, train, manage, pay and dismiss your DSW.

In performing your responsibilities as the Employer there are some Medicaid rules that you need to be aware of, and understand that as a result of failing to perform your responsibilities could result in Medicaid fraud and have monetary consequences.

THINGS AN EMPLOYER SHOULD DO:

- Select DSWs who you feel would best work for you.
- Schedule your DSWs to perform tasks according to the needs defined by the Managed Care Organization (MCO) and for hours defined on your Plan of Care.
- Train DSW to perform job tasks in a manner that compliments your personal choice and needs.
- Ensure that hours recorded in Authenticare are accurately recorded on the verified time sheet.
- DSW does not work over the hours allowed in your plan of care.
- Ensure that no two (2) DSWs are claiming the same time on their time sheets without authorization from MCO.
- Communicate with your MCO and SKIL Fiscal Agent, Inc with any changes in your condition or status which includes but is not limited to: where you live, monthly income, admissions to hospitals, nursing homes, and absence from your home for an extended period of time (vacation or leave town). This must be done within three (3) business days.
- Contact your MCO and/ or SKIL Fiscal Agent, Inc if you know of any situation where a DSW is falsifying information.

THINGS AN EMPLOYER SHOULD NOT DO:

- Select DSWs ONLY because you know them or they are family.
- Hire your spouse, guardian, durable power of attorney, or a DSW under the age of 18. Parents of minor children also may not be hired.
- Schedule your DSW to perform tasks that are not approved by the MCO and/ or are over the amount of hours allowed on your Plan of Care.
- Schedule more than one DSW to work with you at one time.
- Schedule your DSW to perform ANY task while you are in the hospital, nursing home, or any other facility.
- Allow your DSW to tell you how to perform their job tasks.
- Allow your DSW to make any of the choices for you such as: choice of service provider, choice of other DSWs who work for you, choice of where you live, or whom you socialize with.

- Allow your DSW to work with another employer at the same time they are working with you.
- Allow anyone to sign your name to any document unless that individual has been legally designated to.
- Allow your DSW to put your health and safety at risk.
- Neglect to call you MCO and SKIL Fiscal Agent, Inc when there are changes in your condition and/ or status or if you have questions or concerns about your services.

I have read and understand my rights and responsibilities to self-direct my care. I understand that if I fail to perform my responsibilities, I may lose my option to self-direct.

Instructions for Form 2678

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 2678 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/form2678.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 2678 if you want to:

- Request approval to have an agent file returns and make deposits or payments of Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) taxes, Railroad Retirement Tax Act (RRTA) taxes, income tax withholding (ITW), or backup withholding; or
- Revoke an existing appointment.

Do not use prior versions of this form. All prior versions are obsolete. IRS will not accept them.

Can Employers Appoint Agents to Report, Deposit, and Pay Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA) Tax?

Generally, employers cannot appoint an agent to report, deposit, and pay FUTA tax. However, if you are an employer who receives home care service, you may ask IRS to approve an agent to act on your behalf for FUTA tax purposes. Check the box in the footnote in Part 2, line 5.

To appoint an agent to act for FUTA tax purposes, you must also appoint the agent to act for FICA taxes and ITW purposes.

How to Complete the Form

Part 1: Why You Are Filing This Form

In Part 1, you will check a box to indicate why you are filing Form 2678.

- If you are an employer or payer and you want to appoint an agent, check the box that says, "You want to appoint an agent for tax reporting, depositing, and paying."
- If you are an employer, payer, or agent and you want to revoke an existing appointment, check the box that says, "You want to revoke an existing appointment."

Part 2: Employer or Payer Information

- If you are an employer or payer, enter your employer identification number (EIN), name, trade name, and address.
- If you are an agent revoking an existing appointment, enter the EIN, name, trade name, and address of the employer or payer for whom you have been authorized to act. The employer's or payer's signature is not required.

On line 5, check the boxes for all forms for which you want to:

- Request approval to appoint an agent to file on your behalf, or
- Revoke an agent's existing appointment.

If you are only appointing an agent for some employees, payees, or payments, check the box under For SOME employees/payees/payments.

Example 1. You are an employer. You appoint an agent to file returns and deposit FICA taxes and ITW related to biweekly wage payments that you paid your employees. However, you make bonus wage payments directly to your employees, not through the agent. You should report the bonus payments on a return filed using your EIN.

Example 2. You are an employer. You appoint an agent to file returns and deposit FICA taxes and ITW for biweekly wage payments that you paid to your employees. However, you make biweekly wage payments directly to your company's executives. You should report the wage payments to the executives on a return filed using your EIN.

If you are an employer or payer and you are requesting authorization to appoint an agent, sign and date Form 2678 in Part 2. Then give the form to the agent to complete and sign Part 3.

If you are an employer or payer and you want to revoke an existing appointment, sign and date Form 2678 in Part 2. Complete Part 3. Then send the form to the address for your location under Where To File, later.

Part 3: Agent Information

- If you are an employer or payer and you are requesting authorization to appoint an agent, have the agent complete and sign Part 3.
- If you are an employer or payer and you want to revoke an existing appointment, complete Part 3. The agent's signature is not required. Then send the form to the address for your location under Where To File, later.
- If you want to accept an appointment as an agent or you are an agent who wants to revoke an existing appointment, complete Part 3 with your information. Then sign and date the form where indicated. Send the form to the address for the employer's or payer's location under Where To File, later.

Note. If an agent is a corporate officer, partner, or tax matters partner, the agent must have the authority to execute this appointment of agent.

Filing Form 2678

Send Form 2678 to the address for the employer's or payer's location under Where To File, later. We will send a letter to the employer or payer and to the agent after we have approved the request. For agents of home care service recipients, we will send the approval letter only to the agent.

The authorization to act as an agent is effective on the date shown in the letter. Until we approve the request, the agent is not liable for filing any tax returns or making any deposits or payments.

Only one signature is required to revoke an agent's appointment. If an existing appointment is revoked, the IRS cannot disclose confidential tax information to anyone other than the employer or payer for periods after the appointment is revoked.

If an agent's appointment is revoked, we will send both the employer or payer and the agent a letter confirming the revocation. For agents of home care service recipients, we will send the letter confirming the revocation only to the agent. The revocation is effective on the date shown in the letter.

Change to Domestic Employer Identification Number (EIN) Assignment by Toll-Free Phones

Beginning January 6, 2014, the IRS will refer all domestic EIN requests received by toll-free phones to the EIN Online Assistant. You can access the Assistant by going to www.irs.gov, entering "EIN" in the "Search" feature and following instructions for applying for an EIN online.
