CARDHOLDER AGREEMENT: By signing below you confirm that the credit/debit card (hereinafter referred to as "card") information provided above is that of a card issued to you and you are the legal "cardholder" of this card. You acknowledge that your signature is a binding agreement that the individual receiving services from Quarternote Counseling (hereinafter referred to as the "client") will be using this card as needed for payment of said services. You acknowledge that the client may be yourself or another individual to whom you have granted permission to use the card identified on this form. You acknowledge and are aware that this card will be stored on file electronically by Quarternote Counseling, LLC. You are aware and agree that this card will be used to collect payments due from the client as required by the client's insurance company per benefit guidelines and/or any applicable fees in place within the Quarternote Financial Policies/Self-Pay Agreement/Sliding Scale form. These fees include but are not limited to short notice cancellations and/or appointment no-shows. You acknowledge that, in some instances, Quarternote Counseling may need to process a payment using this card on a day in which the client is not physically present in our office. You acknowledge that in these instances Quarternote Counseling staff will attempt to contact you to alert you of the impending charge, however, your signature below permits Quarternote Counseling to process said charge(s) using this card regardless of whether or not Quarternote was successful in making contact with you as referenced above. You acknowledge and are aware that this card will continue to be stored electronically

and used for the duration of the client's services with our practice unless you exercise your right to terminate this Authorization in full via written request to Quarternote Counseling, LLC at any time, for any reason. Written termination requests should be mailed to the practice at the address above. The termination of an existing Authorization will neither affect nor reverse any previously completed transactions but will terminate the authorization of the card use effective on the date Quarternote Counseling, LLC receives your written termination request.

OPTIONAL: If you would like to grant standing permission for this card to be used for payment processing up to a pre-defined dollar amount without Quarternote attempting to contact you before processing payment, please define that amount here. $_____ (Please initial) _____
